

Coming Up at the April 17th Presbytery Meeting...

Program and Worship:

Rev. Dr. Cynthia Campbell,
Pastor/head of staff
Highland Presbyterian Church,
Louisville, KY

“Philippians: What Does It Mean to Live in Community?”

For our program at this meeting, Cynthia will lead us in Bible Study of Philippians 1: 3-11 as we discover Paul’s words to the Philippians and focus on what it means for us to live in community.

Furthermore, Cynthia will serve as our worship leader and will be preaching on Philippians 4: 4-7 in her sermon “The Only Advice You Will Ever Need.”

REMEMBER: Guests are always welcome. Bring a carload from your congregation.

A little about Cynthia...

Cynthia was installed as Pastor/Head of Staff of the Highland Presbyterian Church, Louisville, KY on January 13, 2013. A native of Pasadena, California, Cynthia began her ministry in Texas and served in three congregations before completing her Ph. D. She joined the faculty of Austin Presbyterian Theological Seminary in 1981 where she taught theology and ministry and directed the Doctor of Ministry Program. In 1988, she was called to the First Presbyterian Church of Salina, Kansas, as Pastor/Head of Staff, one of the first women to serve a congregation of over 1,000 members as pastor. She was an active presbyter in the Presbytery of Northern Kansas during her service at Salina First.

In 1995, she was named President of McCormick Theological Seminary in Chicago (one of the ten seminaries of the Presbyterian Church). When she retired in 2011, her dream was to return to congregational ministry and is delighted to have been invited to Highland.

She is the author of A Multitude of Blessings: A Christian Approach to Religious Diversity (2007) and God’s Abundant Table (2011). Cynthia is married to Fred Holper, who recently retired from teaching preaching and worship at McCormick Seminary. They have two adult children who live in Milwaukee and are also the proud human companions of Shadow the cat.

Our Offering:

Our offering during worship at this Presbytery Meeting will be received for the Presbytery of Northern Kansas partnership with Living Waters for the World. If you are unable to join us as we travel to Honduras to install another clean water system, supporting this program through your financial gifts and prayers is a good way for you to participate in this important mission.
