Break-Out Groups:

All Break-Out Groups will be offered twice and are 45 minutes long. Commissioners and visitors will be invited to attend 2 different break-out groups.

223rd General Assembly – Patty Brown-Barnett, Gary Miles and Cami Raines, our Commissioners and Young Adult Advisory Delegate, will share their experience at General Assembly and report on various actions taken by this year's Assembly.

Living the Gospel: Daring New Ventures with Board of Pensions – Edward Thompson, Board of Pensions Consultant, will highlight new options and provide an overview of 2019 Benefits.

Native American Congregational Support in the PCUSA – Danelle and Ron McKinney, Native American clergy members of Dakota Presbytery and the Native American Consulting Committee of the General Assembly of the PC(USA), will provide an overview of the work this committee has done regarding the Doctrine of Discovery and their report to the General Assembly this summer. The McKinneys are currently serving in Lawrence at Haskell Indian Nations University.

We Are Here to Help! – Rhonda Kruse, Mission Engagement Advisor from the Presbyterian Mission Agency of the PC(USA), will share ways the Presbyterian Mission Agency resources, programs, tools and staff can help your congregation become a vibrant, vigorous and vital congregation engaged in mission.

Resources, Resources, Resources – Lexie Weiser, Presbytery of Northern Kansas Resource Center Directory, has 8 tables of resources on display from YOUR PNK Resource Center and will be available to talk with you about how you can use the Resource Center for all of your program needs.

Vision, Hopes, and Challenges: Cross+Generational Ministry – Celeste Lasich and Becky Rogowski, Hays First Presbyterian Church, will share information on their faith development and ministry vision that brings members of all ages together to learn about Christ and grow in their faith. They will share their experience and what they've learned along the way.

REMEMBER: Guests are always welcome.
Bring a carload from your congregation.
